

News and Notes from Dr. Emerson

Friday, October 13, 2017

Student-Involved Conferences: I am excited to invite you to student-involved conferences. At Olson, we want our conferences to be productive for you and your student/s.

Students will have the opportunity to share with you their successes and challenges. It is also a great time for you to ask the teachers questions you may have. I look forward to seeing you there! Conferences are on a first-come, first-served basis. Conference times are listed below.

Olson Newsletter: We will be starting our weekly Olson newsletter the week after MEA (Monday, October 23). A team or subject area will be highlighted each week. I will be asking our teaching teams and departments to contribute to the newsletter.

With this new format, communication will be school-wide rather than just information coming from me. So, this will be the only “News and Notes from Dr. Emerson” this year, though I will be contributing to the school-wide newsletter each week.

Thank you! To the Olson Parent Group for providing dinner for teachers on Tuesday. We appreciate it!
