Project SUCCESS and the Science Museum of Minnesota invite you to ...

A Day at the Science Museum

Science Fusion: A Celebration of Diversity in Science

This four-part Science Fusion series will connect you with the diverse community of scientific professionals from the Twin Cities through awesome science experiments and activities and show young people the incredible career opportunities available in Science, Technology, Engineering, and Math (STEM).

With your ticket to a Science Fusion event, you can also visit the new SPORTSOLOGY exhibit:
Discover the importance of physiology, physics, and nutrition in active play.

Call 612-874-7710
to reserve up to 4 FREE tickets.

Children of all ages may attend. Childcare is not provided.

Pick up your tickets from the Project SUCCESS staff in the lobby of the Science Museum any time between 12:00 and 1:30 p.m. on the date of the event.
